

Raymond Fire Department Volunteer Application

Thank you for interest in volunteering with the Raymond Fire Department. Please review the Volunteer Application.

About the Raymond Fire Department

The Raymond Fire Department is a Combination Fire Department. We have a career staff of 10 Firefighter EMT's and Paramedics along with almost 40 volunteers throughout our system. We provide Fire Protection for the City of Raymond and Fire District #3 along with providing EMS Services for the North Pacific County. We operate 24/7, 365. Volunteer are a vital part of our systems success.

Outside the City of Raymond and PCFD#3, we have volunteer EMS responders throughout the EMS District. Raymond Fire has EMS responders in Lebam, Menlo, South Bend, Bay Center and Nemah. We are always looking for EMS volunteers in these areas.

Becoming a Volunteer

Being a Volunteer takes a strong individual commitment. Our volunteers go through hundreds of hours of training. Initial training consists of Washington State EMT or EMR certification along with IFSAC Firefighter 1. There is also required monthly training to stay current with required certifications. After initial training the commitment continues with continued training and responding to alarms. There is a huge investment by RFD both in time and money to train volunteers. We will only accept individuals who can meet these requirements.

The application packet you return should include the following:
